Denali Commission Leadership Forum Sponsorship
Alaska Federation of Natives Detailed Work Plan

1. Scope of major work activities

The last major economic conference held in June 2004 was a Leadership Forum on Building Knowledge-Based Economies. The Alaska Federation of Natives (AFN) is convening a second leadership forum titled: Fostering Innovation, Economic Growth & Shared Prosperity in Anchorage, Alaska on July 6 & 7, 2006. The July 2006 Forum will be a continuation of the 2004 Forum on exploring market-based approaches to development in Alaska and how to achieve a greater measure of participation in the global economy. Additional focus will be in developing a strategic exchange of new and creative approaches that will allow our people and other Alaskans to enjoy the greater life opportunities that a strong, growing, vibrant economy can provide.

2. The planned budget for those activities

AFN has developed a Forum budget in excess of $300,000. Specifically the funds received from the Denali Commission will in part be applied to cover the expenses for two specific line items:

1. Space Rental $13,500

   The venue of the Forum is the Hotel Captain Cook. This expense includes the rental of the Discovery Ballroom and nine separate meeting rooms to hold seminars for the entire two day forum.

4. The deliverables to be produced by the activities

The Forum will include a combination of a plenary opening session followed by a series of seminars for each day focusing on pivotal issues, such as climate change and pandemic influenza.

AFN will invite representatives from a range of industries and sectors, to find ways to work together to identify barriers, showcase successes and share how various economic models can be replicated and expanded. Senior U.S. Administration officials, members of Congress and industry sector leaders from within Alaska and beyond will participate in this two-day Leadership Forum.

AFN is convening leaders to this inclusive forum to discuss the most pressing issues, learn from one another, and seek new ways to work together, question conventional approaches and create new solutions to chronic problems that keep Alaska from reaching its utmost potential.

The plenary sessions will be video taped and transcribed to capture this historic event.
