Comments:
 Both parties acknowledge that the original award expired on 1/30/2004 due to an inadvertent oversight by both parties. An amendment to the original award (Amendment #1) was issued by the Denali Commission on 3/4/2004 and signed by the University of Alaska on 3/26/2004, after the original award had expired. Typically, once an award performance period has lapsed, it is not permissible to issue amendments.

The signature of both parties on this bi-lateral agreement acknowledges that both parties have agreed to ratify Amendment #1, eventhough the original award had inadvertently expired at the time Amendment #1 was signed. Both parties also acknowledge that there is no lapse in the award performance period from the time the initial award expired. The award performance period in Amendment #1 will be used for determining allowable costs.

The terms set forth in this bi-lateral agreement will become effective upon signature of these documents by both parties.
