Award Conditions to the Financial Assistance Award
Between the Denali Commission and Institute of the North
For 2008 Spring and Fall Alaska Dialogues
Award No. 385-08
March 2008

1. Scope of Work

The Denali Commission is providing a total of $10,000 to the Institute of the North (ION) for the sponsorship of the 2008 Spring and Fall Alaska Dialogues. The spring conference will be held in Girdwood, Alaska on May 8 – 10, 2008 and the fall Conference will be held at Talkeetna Alaska Lodge September 19 – 21, 2008.

The Spring Alaska Dialogue in Girdwood will focus exclusively on emerging leaders and the issues that affect young professionals from across the state. The theme of “This Is Our State, We Are Alaskans” builds on the idea of rural-urban connectivity, growing a statewide social peer network through dialogue and deliberation on the issues that are important to all young Alaskans. The total estimated budget for each Dialogue is $57,000.

The Fall Alaska Dialogue in Talkeetna will provide a non-partisan venue where Alaskan leaders, policy makers, and government officials can discuss pertinent issues facing the state. The theme for this dialogue is still in development.

Denali Commission funds for both Dialogues, $5,000 in the spring and $5,000 in the fall, which will provide scholarship assistance and aid in the participation of 20 participants, 10 in the spring and 10 in the fall.

Sponsorship of these events will further the Denali Commissions mission in workforce development and leadership and professional development as part of a healthy Alaskan workforce. Additional benefits include:

- Denali Commission’s name as a leader in fresh approaches to Alaska’s challenges recognized throughout the events and on all conference related materials.
- Identification of a Denali Commission “cohort” of emerging leader attendees whose participation is directly the result of the Denali Commission sponsorship
- Reduced fees for registration for two Denali Commission staff to the Emerging Leaders Conference in the spring. These staff members would act as mentors to the Denali Commission “cohort”.
- At least one speaking engagement by staff at both the spring and fall Dialogues.

- Informal opportunities to discuss the Denali Commission internship program at the Spring Dialogue with participation by Janet Hall, program manager in charge of Denali Commission interns.

Commission funds for sponsorship can be used for: event space and equipment rentals for the actual event, event costs including video, audio and sound system rentals/services, travel of conference attendees (travel does not include food costs), event brochure printing or other event media needed for attendees. All activities that involve the work of consultants or contractors must be procured through fair and open procurement processes, in keeping with the Federal Circulars in order to be eligible Commission costs. Commission funds cannot be used for food or beverage of any kind, gifts, per diem of attendees or wages/salaries. Any questions regarding acceptable uses of funds should be directed to the program manager.

All Commission funding is intended for use for the scope of work identified in the Award document only. Any balance of funds remaining after the full scope of work has been completed will be returned to the Denali Commission.
