Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Grant/Award, this Authorization:

Back ground:

Through the following initiative, the University of Alaska will initiate and develop and pilot a two year degree program to prepare trainees for immediate employment as physical therapy assistants (PTA). PTA's are capable of carrying out established treatment programs with monthly supervision by licensed physical therapists. This new offering at the University will be in collaboration with the Whatcom Community College in Bellingham, Washington. A University PTA faculty will advise students, provide instructional support and coordinate and teach clinical coursework for the Alaska distance learning cohort. No students will be trained during this performance period.

This purpose of this amendment is to extend the project performance period to June 30, 2011.
