Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Grant/Award, this Authorization:

Background:

Through the following initiative the University of Alaska will initiate and develop and pilot a two year degree program to prepare trainees for immediate employment as physical therapy assistants (PTA). PTA's are capable of carrying out established treatment plans with monthly supervision by a licensed physical therapist. This new offering at the University will be in collaboration with the Whatcom Community College in Bellingham, Washington. A university PTA faculty will advise students, provide instructional support and coordinate and teach clinical coursework for the Alaska distance learning cohort. No students will be trained during this performance period.

The purpose of the project authorization is to extend the performance period to June 30, 2013.
