Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Grant/Award, this Authorization:

This project will be funded and managed the Department of Labor and Workforce Development using funds from fiscal year 2007 US Department of Labor.

Tlingit-Haida Regional Housing Authority (THRHA) will provide training for 27 individuals from rural southeast Alaska communities in basic construction skills so that they are eligible for hire on projects in the region during construction season 2010 and beyond. Upon completion of this construction academy, THRHA will use American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) funds to hire these trained workers to construct ARRA funded construction projects. These projects include 17 senior housing units in Saxman and the 5,000 square foot Yakutat Senior Community Center.

Outcomes:

In partnership with the University of Alaska Southeast, all participants will attend an extensive week long/40 hour course which will include Introduction Carpentry, Construction Technology and Carpentry I. The second course will include CPR, first aid, OSHA, and forklift and scaffolding safety. All participants will obtain certification in all areas of training.
